We see the crafty land-lord — Grasp - ing day by day —
But up be-hind him sneaks now — A thief with cun - ning lear —
But when the fight was o - ver — Just at the close of day —

The poor but hon - est toil - er — Whose rent he can - not pay —
But what is life or free - dom — When for - tune is so near —
Amongst the dead and dy - ing — A woun - ded com - rade lay —

One may be dressed in vel - vet — The oth - er clad in strife —
But a step and he has reach'd him — With his mur - d'rous knife —
Gent - ly they gath - er a - round him — To ease his dy - ing strife —

Andante Mod<sup>to</sup>

But each must reach a common plane When God demands his precious lease of life. —
A gleam of steel, all is o - ver — An - oth - er soul has lost it's lease of life. —
Wrapp'd in the flag of his coun - try — For Freedom's cause he gave his lease of life. —
